And High School Coaches Clinic

The Hiram College Women's Lacrosse Program in combination with area college coaches will be holding a high school 6v6 and high school coaches clinic on Sunday, February 12th. The high school coached clinic will be held from 12-1pm. The high school 6v6 will be held from 1-6pm. Both events are free, but all participants must register to attend.

The High School Coaches Clinic will be conducted by area college coaches. All high school coaches in attendance will receive a copy of the drills demonstrated during the clinic. All coaches must register for this event and information can be found below.

The Terrier 6v6 will be held on the Hiram College Campus in Henry Field House. All teams will be made up of five field players and one goalkeeper. Each team will be guaranteed four 20-minute games. Area college coaches will be in attendance with information about their college and lacrosse program. Goggles, stick, and mouth guard must be provided by players in order to participate. Goalies must provide their own equipment. Each athlete must complete a waiver, that will be sent electronically, in order to participate in this event. Registration and waiver must be complete and returned by Thursday, February 9th to participate. Registration information can be found below. Space is limited... so register today!

Registration for the Terrier 6v6 and High School Coaches Clinic can be found at www.midwesternforce.com under "Events". These events are not sponsored by Midwestern Force Lacrosse Club, but registration will be facilitated through their organization. For more information please contact Hiram College Head Women's Lacrosse Coach Erika Blozie at 330.569.5347 or blozieem@hiram.edu.
